

The FunZone

seek and find in the countryside

If you're going on a trip to the countryside, print off this sheet and take it with you to see how many things you can find on a day out. You can take it on a car or train journey or even out when you're walking. Just tick the circles. Good luck!

A public footpath marked by a yellow arrow

Countryside tip:

 always stick to paths unless you are told otherwise

A crop field

Extra tick if you know what crop it is. Write here:

A gate leading into a field

Countryside tip: always leave a gate as you find it

A scarecrow in a field

A stile over a wall or fence

Add up the ticks and write how many you got in this circle:

Go to the website www.countrysideaccess.gov.uk to see how you scored

A horse riding on a bridleway

Score an extra tick if you spot this sign for a bridleway

Someone picking up litter

Remember: you should never leave litter in the countryside, it harms animals and the environment

©The Countryside Agency/Charlie Hedley

A rambler enjoying a walk

Remember: always follow the Countryside Code

A cyclist

Countryside tip: Walkers have a right of way on a footpath so cyclists should stop for you

Someone taking a dog for a walk

Remember: dogs should always be on a short lead near animals

A forest

Earn an extra tick if you can write the name of a tree you have seen:

A field of animals

Earn an extra tick if you can name which animal it is:

The Open Access symbol

Countryside tip: this symbol means you don't have to stick to paths

A National Trail Symbol

Did you know there are more than twelve national trails in England?

A tractor in a field

©The Countryside Agency/Joel Low

A lake, river or canal

Get 3 ticks if you see all three

A historic ruin or monument

Earn an extra tick if you name it: